Hope to Visit Guantanamo -- US Indicated Here

COPYRIGHT

WE HOPE that no CIA man gets curious about how we were able to suggest in early November that Guantanamo Bay in Cuba would have a visit from Bob Hope for Christmas. Because we honestly don't know where we got the information -- in fact, even Hope didn't know about it then. We guess it just seemed a good and pertinent idea at the time.

But it is true -- Bob Hope (and what a company!) has joined the USO's Operation Santa Claus unit that will visit military installations in the Caribbean area. Included are stop-offs at the Guantanamo Bay naval base; Grand Turk's Island, San Salvador, Puerto Rico and the Canal Zone.

In the Hope's Island-Hopping troupe will be Zsa Zsa Gabor, Andy Williams, Janice Pennington, Anita Bryant (Mrs. Bob Green), Jerry Colonna, Peter Leeds, and Les Brown's Band. The USO shows are made possible through contributions of the American people to United Funds and Community Chests.
